A Note from Jonathan Friz, Founder of 10 Days of Prayer:

We are living in strange times. While history records many plagues, we have never seen a plague shut down cities and economies in the modern era. Uncertainty and fear seem to rule the day, and yet, in the midst of this crisis, many are anticipating times of unprecedented harvest, unity, and the outpouring of the Spirit.

As we approach Pentecost, God is calling His church back to the Upper Room, to seek the Lord, to rediscover our love and need for one another, to hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches, and to seek to solidify our own hearts in God's word while also crying out in prayer for God's purposes to be done on earth as it is in heaven.
